

The SoundPound Group competition T&Cs

The following terms & conditions are linked to the Annual Bee Bus Ticket competition and will outline entry requirements, the prize, winner selection, and winner announcement.

Who can enter?

Anyone who lives or works in Greater Manchester and applies for an Annual Bee Bus Ticket. Staff and directors from SoundPound credit unions are unable to enter this competition.

How can you enter?

Anyone who has signed an agreement for an Annual Bee Bus Ticket with any of the 9 participating credit unions between Thursday 5th December and Friday 31st January will be automatically entered into this competition.

What is the prize?

The winner of this competition will have their Annual Bee Bus Ticket fully paid for by The SoundPound Group. Future payments for the year will automatically be covered and if a payment has already been made towards the Annual Bee Bus Ticket, this will be refunded into their credit union savings account.

How will the winner be selected?

The SoundPound Group will collect the names of all Annual Bee Bus Ticket holders from participating credit unions. A name will then be selected completely at random. Anyone who has been accepted for an Annual Bee Bus Ticket but hasn't yet collected their ticket will still be entered.

How will the winner be notified and announced?

Once a winner has been selected, they will be notified by their respective credit union at which they applied for their Annual Bee Bus Ticket. After being notified, the winner will then be announced on Facebook and X by The SoundPound Group – @SoundPoundGM on Facebook and @SoundPoundGroup on X.
